AB de Villiers is one of the finest batsmen ever to play cricket, and yet his achievement extends beyond his outrageous armoury of drives, pulls, paddles, scoops and flicks. Whether he is delighting home crowds at the Wanderers or Newlands, or setting new records in Bengaluru or Sydney, he plays the game in a wholehearted manner, projecting a positive image of his country around the world and also making millions of South Africans feel good about themselves.

This is AB's story, in his own words. It's the story of the youngest of three talented, sports-mad brothers growing up in Warmbaths; of a boy who excelled at tennis, rugby and cricket; of a youngster who made his international debut at the age of twenty and was then selected in every single Test played by South Africa for the next eleven seasons; of a batsman who has started to redefine the art, being ranked among the world's very best in Test, ODI and T20.

AB has remained a consistent and true sportsman through all the pyrotechnics – quick to deflect praise, swift to compliment opponents, eager to work hard, to embrace the team's next challenge and to relish what he still regards as the huge privilege of representing his country.

AB de Villiers is a modern sporting phenomenon.
