wanted was to play for Pakistan. Nothing else.

And when God decided to bail me out, His help came at full speed – like a fast, bouncy delivery, ready to smash your face if you don't dispatch it for a six. I received God's help, graciously, head-on.