Pakistan, and therefore became the cause of much discomfort and embarrasment to General Pervez Musharraf and a few of his chosen field commanders and staff officers responsible for this costly and unmitigated military disaster. It was a hopeless and badly planned operation, not well thought through or professionally deliberated collectively, by the Pakistani military, ISI and civil leadership.

Sketch 17.1: The Pakistan Army's intrusions into Kargil (Mashkoh-Dras).

It was a war imposed on us by the Pakistan Army. Regular units of NLI, SSG and other elements of the Pakistan Army disguised as
