Ten Commandments of COAS – 1993

The COAS, General B.C. Joshi, directed that all ranks would carry a card with his commandments:

1. No rape.
2. No molestation.
3. No torture resulting in death or maiming.
4. No military disgrace.
5. No meddling in civil administration.
6. Competence in platoon/company-level tactics in counterinsurgency operations.
7. Willingly carry out civic action with innovations.
8. Develop media interaction.
9. Respect human rights.
10. Only fear God, uphold dharma and enjoy serving the country.

Supplementary Commandments as COAS (2005)

1. Remember that people you are dealing with are your own countrymen. Your conduct must be dictated by this one significant consideration.
2. Operations must be people-friendly, using minimum force and avoiding collateral damage – restraint must be the key.
3. Good intelligence is the key to success – the thrust of your operations must be intelligence-based and must include the militant leadership.
