

Walking out to bat in the World Cup final at the Wankhede in April 2011. That win will always remain the highest point of my career.