staff officers attended this training event. The essence of the seminar was that no linear fortification line, however formidable, could withstand a determined assault in overwhelming strength on a chosen point of attack.

Meerut is a very old cantonment and it has good facilities for sports and social activities. I laid great emphasis on shooting. We also improved the golf course and have fond memories of many a round of golf played there. At the same time, I encouraged many youngsters to play the game. Two of them, Jyoti Randhawa and Digvijay Singh, are leading professional golfers playing in the national, Asian and European circuits today. The Pine House, which is the official residence of the GOC, is a lovely colonial bungalow, and proved to be very lucky for us. We solemnized the wedding of our daughter, Urvashi, with Gagan Dugal in this house in November 1997. Gagan is the son of Major General M.S. Dugal, Vir Chakra, with whom I had gone to the Staff College. Interestingly, the marriage of Tajinder Gill and Nina, daughter of Major General Prem Vadehra, also took place in this well-appointed house. One of my predecessors, Major General K.S. Brar, was himself married while he was the GOC and was living in the Pine House!

By mid-1996, Rohini had established her own office at Delhi, where she started creating new designs for Indian handicrafts and gift items. Therefore, she had to divide her time between her responsibilities at Pine Division and her entrepreneurial venture. Overall this tenure was a very satisfying period for both of us.
