“If you ever do let me be in a western,” I once told Jack, “you’ll probably make me the lawyer from the East.”