APPENDIX C

RESOLUTION OF REMEMBRANCE

January 26th, 1931

We, the citizens of . . . . record our proud and grateful appreciation of the sons and daughters of India who have taken part in the great struggle for independence and have suffered and sacrificed so that the motherland may be free ; of our great and beloved leader, Mahatma Gandhi, who has been a constant inspiration for us, ever pointing to the path of high purpose and noble endeavour ; of the hundreds of our brave youths who have laid down their lives at the altar of freedom ; of the martyrs of Peshawar and the whole Frontier Province, Sholapur, Midnapur District, and Bombay ; of the scores of thousands who have faced and suffered barbarious lathi attacks from the forces of the enemy ; of the men of the Garhwali Regiment, and all other Indians in the military and the police ranks of the Government, who have refused, at the peril of their own lives, to fire or take other action against their own countrymen ; of the indomitable peasantry of Gujrat, which has faced without flinching and turning back all manner of acts of terrorism, and the brave and long-suffering peasantry of the other parts of India, which has taken full part in the struggle despite every effort to suppress it ; of the merchants and the other members of the commercial community, who have helped, at great loss to themselves,
