unflagging interest, was Mayne's Hindu Law. But it is out of place to talk here of Indian law-books.

I passed my examinations, was called to the bar on 10 June 1891, and enrolled in the High Court on the IIth. On the 12th I sailed for home.

But notwithstanding my study there was no end to my helplessness and fear. I did not feel myself qualified to practise law.

But a separate chapter is needed to describe this helplessness of mine.
