friendships I thus formed stood me, as we shall see, in very good stead.

The ship cast anchor in the port of Durban on 18 or 19 December. The Naderi also reached port the same day.

But the real storm was still to come.