helpful to me. Sjt Badri came in very close contact with me and took a prominent part in Satyagraha. Through these and other friends I came in intimate contact with numerous Indian settlers from North and South India. I became more their brother than a mere adviser, and shared in all their private and public sorrows and hardships.

It may be of some interest to know how the Indians used to name me. Abdulla Sheth refused to address me as Gandhi. None, fortunately, ever insulted me by calling or regarding me as ‘saheb’. Abdulla Sheth hit upon a fine appellation – ‘bhai’, i.e. brother. Others followed him and continued to address me as ‘bhai’ until the moment I left South Africa. There was a sweet flavour about the name when it was used by the ex-indentured Indians.
