accommodating oneself to imprisonment is a novel thing for us. We will try to assimilate it.’