no right to give up, and, with a determined shake of her head, she got down to business once again. Kiran eventually won 6-3, 5-7, 6-3. In the finals she outplayed Susan Dass, her regular rival and compatriot, and went on to become the Asian champion. Reproduced here is a note written by her father on the eve of the championships, which she kept in the pocket of her tennis shorts. Any time she made a mistake, she felt her pocket, which refreshed her about the winning strategies.

Akhtar Ali was responsible for training most of the top women players those days and had wanted Kiran to join his camp. However, Kiran preferred to pursue the game under the guidance of her father and her coach Raghubar Dayal. Consequently, Akhtar had a point to prove against Kiran, which, unfortunately for him, he never could. But Akhtar, all along, admired Kiran for the stamina and determination she possessed.

1. FIGHT FIGHT FIGHT
2. Determination – Presence of Mind – Positive Attitude –
3. THAT LITTLE EXTRA
4. Concentration – Anticipation – Early Running – Early Swing – Early Position
5. Energy Like A Million Batteries
6. yet Cool – Cool and Thoughtful
7. TAKE YOUR TIME – FOLLOW THROUGH
8. BEND – BEND – BEND
9. Relaxed Limbs
10. Stroke High For GOOD LENGTH
11. ALWAYS KEEP OPPONENT OUT SIDE THE BASELINE
12. PASS VERY CALMLY DOWN THE LINE OR LOB WELL
13. SERVE – THROW – SWING WELL – BODY WEIGHT – OVER THE SERVICE LINE