persons' conduct,' sources said.

Lawyers have been demanding that the report be made public as it was constituted by an administrative order and not set up under the provisions of the Inquiry Act.

One of the panel members, Justice N. N. Goswami, had resigned in September'88 when a Supreme Court judge passed observations on an order he had passed.

The counsel for Kiran, K. T. S. Tulsi, was later appointed as the additional solicitor-general of India. Bawa Gurcharan Singh, the counsel for the Delhi Bar Association, who is on record (Newstrack, June 1990, a video news magazine of Living Media Ltd.) as saying that 'Kiran's career is finished for ever', was murdered in his chambers by one of his clients. Swaraj Kaushal, another lawyer-friend of Kiran who helped her prepare to plead for herself before the courts, became the governor of Mizoram.
