ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

JIMMY

I want to thank everyone who has played a part in my career: coaches, captains and teammates. I've met some amazing people and made some great friends. Thanks for helping make the journey unforgettable.

Physios and doctors – the unsung heroes – thank you for keeping me on the field for the best part of 20 years.

The fans – England is the best supported team in cricket. On long tours, the travelling support always kept me going.

My mum and dad. Thanks for encouraging me to play sport and helping grow my love for it. Thanks also to my uncles and grandads for shipping me round to cricket clubs across the North West and beyond.

Daniella, Lola and Ruby – there is no way I would have achieved what I have without you. Thank you for your unwavering support and being my biggest fans. I love you, x.

Finally, thank you to the many people who had a hand in this book and helped me put my journey into words. The team at Bonnier for their support, and of course to Felix, who articulated a lifetime more eloquently than I ever could.

FELIX

Firstly, a huge thank you to Daniella Anderson for sharing such personal things in her own life so eloquently, which really helped make this book what it is. Some other very important people lent a lot of time and spoke in depth too: Catherine and Michael Anderson, Sarah Mackie, Joe Root,
