VI: ‘CRY OF BLOOD’ REPORT INTO EXTRA-JUDICIAL MURDER IN KENYA (EXTRACTS)

This report outlined, at great length and with supporting detail, allegations that the police in Kenya had engaged in the extra-judicial murder of hundreds of men on the suspicion that they were members of the Mungiki, a local criminal organisation. These extracts give the background to the report and its findings, and the reaction of the Kenyan police and government, as well as some examples of the personal stories told in the report.
