with another man known as Daniel Mutahi (see profile above) and took them away in a small white personal vehicle registration number KAM 294R. The driver together with his father fruitlessly searched for him in several police stations and mortuaries. The matter was reported to Kasarani police station. He was still missing at the time of compiling this report on 11/7/08.