```
php artisan db:seed
```

This command populates your database with the test data defined in your seeder classes. You can verify that the data has been inserted correctly by connecting to your database using a tool like MySQL client, phpMyAdmin, or any database GUI, and checking the contents of the posts table.