

© Gallo Images/AFP

The man who started it all congratulates me on my 211 not out against New Zealand at Christchurch in 1999. It was also my first Test century. If we hadn't lost 90 overs to rain I reckon I could've got close to 300

© AP Photo/Obed Zilwa

Me and Henry Williams facing the heat at the King Commission enquiry in to match fixing in June 2000. Poor Henry was kakking himself; he could barely remember his name. Ja. Pretty much the same for me

© Gallo Images/AFP

Arriving at the Delhi Police headquarters in 2006 to face the Indian authorities. That's my wingman and lawyer, Peter Whelan, on my left shoulder. The shades were more for my hangover than for the bright sunlight